BANKRUPTCY NO. 02-62458 JPK
Chapter 7

ORDER REGARDING CORRECTION OF DEBTOR'S NAME

This chapter 7 case was initiated by a petition filed on May 22, 2002. All of the printed/typed written information in all documents filed with the Court stated that the debtor's surname is "Sebentas," and thus that the debtor who is the subject of this case is James R. Sebentas, Jr. On February 23, 2006, the clerk docketed a hand-written letter from a "James R. Serbentas, Jr.," stating that the spelling of his surname in this case was at all times incorrect, and that his true legal name is "James R. Serbentas, Jr." This document requests that the Court correct the spelling of the debtor's surname on its records.

The Court finds that the correspondence from the debtor filed as docket record entry #12 on February 23, 2006, should be treated as a motion to correct the Court's records, essentially pursuant to Fed. R. Bank. P. 9024/ Fed. R. Civil P. 60(a), i.e., to correct a clerical mistake in the Court's records, particularly with respect to orders which had been entered by the Court in the administration of this case. The Court further finds that in that context, the debtor's motion should be granted, and that the name of the debtor in the above-designated case should be changed on the Court's records to "James R. Serbentas, Jr."

IT IS ORDERED that the clerk shall correct the record of this case to state that the debtor is "James R. Serbentas, Jr."

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the clerk shall provide notice of the discharge of "James R. Serbentas, Jr." to all persons or entities entitled to such notice pursuant to Fed. R. Bank. P. 4004(g).

Dated at Hammond, Indiana on March 14, 2006.
